COPP'S PAVILION HOTEL, Louisiana avenue, near 6th street.

THIS ESTABLISHMENT has been recently put in perfect order for the reception of permanent or transient boarders. From his long experience in several of the first hotels in New England, the proprietor feels bold to say that for neatness, comfort, good order, and a well-supplied table, no establishment will compare favorably with any of the first-class hotels in Washington.

The lodging-rooms, being separate and distinct from the main building, are remarkably quiet, and free from noise and bustle so often complained of in the larger hotels. Terms: For Board and Lodging, $1 per day; for meals alone, $5 per week.

Transient boarders on reasonable terms. mar 24—2f

GODFREY PATTON & CO., NEW YORK.

Take leave to inform their friends and the public that they have taken up the Importing Business on their own account. For the future they will confine themselves strictly to the Importing Business, for the purchase of dry goods, in Glasgow, Scotland.

From their long experience in the trade, they feel confident that they can promote the interest of those engaged in the importation of dry goods, and to the mutual benefit of both parties, which shall have their best attention.

The name of the firm in Glasgow is changed to GODFREY PATTON & CO.

The New York firm being dissolved, they will be pleased to receive orders through their agent, James Patton, No. 31 Pine street, New York.

GODFREY PATTON & CO., Commission Merchants, Glasgow, Scotland.

RECOMMENDATIONS: Messrs. Dennison, Wood & Co., New York. Messrs. W. C. Pickers & Co., do. Messrs. Merritt, Ely & Co., do. Joseph Walker, etc., do.

The subscribers being alone entrusted with samples of cloth and patterns of these goods for the United States market, invite the attention of the trade.

PATENT WEATHER GUARDS.

A. HALL respectfully informs the citizens of Washington and Georgetown, that he is now prepared to execute all orders, with promptness and dispatch, of those who may be annoyed by the wind and rain driving under their doors, thereby destroying carpets, ruining furniture, and setting the fire, so that, in a short time, they will not need three times the amount to repair them than that of a preventative in the first instance. The merits of these weather-proofing instruments need only be seen to be appreciated. Out of a large list of persons for whom I have put them on, I beg leave to refer to the following gentlemen: Hon. W. W. Seaton, ex-Mayor, Washington. Captain Mordant, U. S. Arsenal and U. S. Observatory. Hon. B. F. French, Capitol Hill. Dr. Riley, Georgetown. Messrs. J. K. J. Rogers, and G. Ripley, Island. Orders left at Garrett & Davis' Carpenter Shop, Fourth and a half street; at Campbell & Co.'s Hardware Store; at Hatch & Co.'s Lumber Yard; at J. W. Caldwell's Drug Store; Georgetown; or at my home, 13th street, will be promptly attended to. L. A. HALL, mar 24—4f

REAL ESTATE IN VIRGINIA FOR SALE.

THE subscriber has not yet disposed of his real estate in Prince William county, Virginia. He is still desirous to sell it, and will do so on reasonable terms. It consists of 1,947 acres of land, in two and a half lots, four miles of Brentsville, the county town, four miles from the city of Alexandria, and is situated on the Potomac river, and is bounded by the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, which will be completed to Brentsville this year. This land is well adapted to the growth of wheat, corn, and other crops, and is a very desirable place for the business. It is within a mile and three-quarters of the railroad.

Secondly, a square of buildings in the town of Brentsville, suitable for a carriage-maker, wheelwright, or blacksmith, with two dwelling-houses, kitchen, blacksmith, carriage, and wheelwright shops, and other necessary buildings. $1000 is now my price for this property—on the 1st of April, 1885. It is within a mile and three-quarters of the railroad.

Thirdly, nine and a quarter acres of land on the turnpike, just above Buckland, on which are a good dwelling-house, and a large barn, with a good outbuilding, and a good stable. It would make a good tavern stand, and the shop a good stable. For this property I will take $400—on the 1st of April, 1885.

Fourthly, a large lot in the village of Buckland, known as the yard-lot, on which there is a comfortable house and kitchen—let enclosed. The yard-lot is in bad condition, but it could be easily made into a very good place for the business. For this I will take $400—on the 1st of April, 1885.

Fifthly, a lease lot in Haymarket, with a pretty good house, kitchen, a large horse-shed, stable, &c. The buildings are a little out of order. The lease may run for ten or twelve years. For this I will take $100—on the 1st of April, 1885.

Sixthly, a large farm in the county of Loudoun, Maryland, containing 200 acres, within eight miles of the National Road, and ten to twelve miles of the Baltimore and Annapolis Railroad. It is a very desirable place for the business, and is a very good place for the business. It is within a mile and three-quarters of the railroad.

Seventhly, a large lot in the village of Buckland, known as the yard-lot, on which there is a comfortable house and kitchen—let enclosed. The yard-lot is in bad condition, but it could be easily made into a very good place for the business. For this I will take $400—on the 1st of April, 1885.
